How to Revise GCSE Dance

- You must ensure that you have watched each of the professional works to support answering the questions in Section C of the written paper.
- You must practice exam questions for all sections of the paper.
- You must learn all key terminology, creating flashcards with definitions is one of the most effective tools for learning these.
- You must ensure that you are clear about the layout of the written paper, there are three sections.
- In order to be fully prepared for your practical exam you must stick to your rehearsal schedule, this should be happening at least once a week outside of lesson time.
- You must make sure that you have your music for your choreography and performance piece ready for the exam on a memory stick.
- You must make sure that your programme notes are completed in the correct format ready for the exam, so that they can be sent off to the exam board.
