New routines, the same high expectations

Myth busting:

“It’s OK, I don’t have to go in today I have no lessons...”

“My teacher is away so I don’t have to go in...”

“It’s OK , in the Sixth Form you can wear whatever you want”

“ They’ve collapsed the timetable today for some workshop thing (IGNITE DAY). I don’t have to go in unless I want to.”

How you can help them with routines and expectations

- If they or you are not sure about routines and expectations you can:
- Use the Hayesfield Sixth Parents' Handbook
- Use the Hayesfield website
- Contact the your child's tutor
- Ask them to show you the weekly notes
- Information about their subjects on the website

VIDEO FOR PARENTS 2: INDEPENDENCE AND COMMUNICATION

Advice from Sixth Form Students for Parents of Years 12 and 13

Video for Parents: Independence and Communication

Advice from sixth form students filmed at the end of their sixth form course and all were from state, non-selective sixth forms.

Net Sixth Form is a hub for Sixth Form Leaders run by Michael Senior with over 25 years experience who has hosted national conferences for heads of sixth and providing resources to use with sixth form students for 20+ years.

A number of parents contact Net Sixth Form every week and we don't have the capacity to answer the queries so instead we have created a Facebook group exclusively for parents and carers of sixth form students - netsixthform-parents

What's included

Video for Parents 2: Independence and Communication

Tutor support in Year 12

Role of the tutor:

- Trusted adult
- Delivers the tutor programme
 - Oversees progress and wellbeing
- Writes reference for UCAS/apprenticeships/employment
- First point of contact for you and your daughter/son if you have queries

Meet the tutor afternoon:
Tuesday 13th October from 2:30pm

Academic success - what we offer

Timetable and curriculum:

- 8 contact lessons and 1 non-contact (ghost lesson) per main academic subject every two weeks.

- REACH (PSHCE) curriculum (2 hours per fortnight)
- Core Maths, EPQ and super-curricular sessions (3 hours per fortnight)

Resources:

- 3 study spaces on each site
- Google classroom
- Signposting to various high quality online resources eg: Seneca

Academic success - what we offer

Teaching:

- Most subjects will be delivered by two members of staff
- Subject specialists will coach thinking and learning skills alongside teaching content
- A single framework for revision is used by all subjects DTTR
- All subjects provide documents that help students navigate each topic, including: PLCs, Knowledge organisers, revision notes, wider reading

Diagnose. Therapy.
Test. Revisit.

The diagnostic picture that travels
with the pupil.

Academic success: What we expect from the students

Homework and continual learning/ revision:

- 1 hour independent work for every 1 hour face to face lesson
- This is in addition to the work that is set for their Period 9 session

Helping them manage their workload:

- Work hard in lessons
- Use non-contact time to the best of their ability
- Take responsibility for their progress but recognise and reach out for support from teachers when needed

Academic success - what you can do to help

- Encourage use of wider-reading lists
- Regular checks of Personal Learning Checklists
- Website – Sixth Form – Subjects
- Books , visits, internet, events
- UCAS subject application “beyond their taught courses”

Wider Reading List

Are you starting to think about which subject you might like to study at University? When you write your personal statement you will need to show you have read around the subject beyond your A Level syllabus . Here are some ideas to get you started but do go beyond these lists yourselves. Try some and it may help you find your passion!

More info on the Hayesfield website

The screenshot shows the website for Hayesfield Girls' School Mixed Sixth. The header is purple with the school name and a search icon. The main content area is white and features the title 'Careers – Achieving Ambitions' in purple. Below the title, there is a paragraph about the school's commitment to developing students' knowledge and skills for the 21st-century workplace. A second paragraph mentions the 'Achieving Ambitions' programme. At the bottom, a paragraph states that students progress from the school to a range of destinations and that the school respects their right to choose from a range of pathways.

Hayesfield GIRLS' MIXED SCHOOL SIXTH

Careers – Achieving Ambitions

Hayesfield Girls' School and Mixed Sixth Form strives to enable students to develop their knowledge, skills and creativity, preparing them for the 21st century workplace. Careers is embedded throughout the curriculum and forms part of the comprehensive Character Education programme of activities on offer through the Achieving Ambitions programme.

Students progress from Hayesfield Girls' School and Mixed Sixth Form to a range of destinations and we respect the right of students to choose from a range of pathways. We seek to ensure that students have high aspirations, and that the guidance they receive is impartial and tailored to their individual needs.

EPQ – Extended Project Qualification

- Can opt in until October half-term
- Academic essay or artefact with commentary, and a 16 page A4 Production Log
